Elaborate Plans For Unveiling of Tablet

The College of William and Mary will be presented with a tablet in memory of Charles Bellini, Sunday, January 27, at two-thirty o'clock.

On the tablet will be inscribed:

Philosophia una ex linguis multis

In Honor of

Charles Bellini

A native of Italy

Professor of Modern Languages

College of William and Mary

1779-1803

And in commemoration of the establishment by the Board of Visitors in 1779 of the Department of Modern Languages, the first in an American College through the efforts of Thomas Jefferson, an alumnus, and at the time Governor of Virginia.

Tablet placed by Luigi Carnovale
Chicago 1913 Ill.

Professor Bellini was born in Italy about 1735 or 1740. He came to Virginia and settled in Albemarle County in 1703. During the war he was a patriot, for his name appears among the listed Albemarle Guards.

In 1779 the Board of Visitors of William and Mary College dropped the Schools of Grammar and Divinity and established the Department of Modern Languages, Department of Medicine and the Department of Law. Thomas Jefferson was at that time a member of the Board of Visitors and it was through his influence that these changes were made.

Mr. Bellini, who was an accomplished gentleman and a friend of Jefferson, was made the first Professor of Modern Languages. French had been taught occasionally at Harvard but not by members of the faculty. Students were allowed to study French

Wythe Law Club Initiates Nine Men

The Wythe Law Club held a meeting last Friday evening at which time the following nine new members were initiated: Mr. Spicer, Ted Dalton, W. J. Holladay, C. E. Holladay, J. G. Madison, John Marshall, J. Swanson Smith, V. L. Sexton, George A. Downing. Each new member, upon being initiated, was required to make a short talk, the subjects of these talks being assigned. Some of them were: "Why I Will Make a Better Lawyer Than My Father," and "Why I am Better Looking Than My Brother."

The officers of the Club, including those newly elected, are: P. P. Peebles, Chancellor; Ted Dalton, Vice-Chancellor; George A. Downing, Clerk; C. E. Holladay, Corresponding Secretary, and V. L. Sexton, Sheriff.

An added feature to the program was a talk by Dr. W. A. Hamilton on "The Advantages of Being a Member of the Wythe Law Club."

The next meeting of the Club will be held February 8.

Ath. Council Holds Important Session

At the meeting of the Athletic Council last week, a motion was made by T. L. Jordan, and was carried by a unanimous vote of all present to accept orange letters, on a silver background as the official athletic monogram. But in order to carry out the new College color scheme, the monogram should be worn only upon a regulation College sweater of dark green. The authority to purchase sweaters and arrange a new monogram color scheme was given by the committee to Mr. Jordan.

On account of the increased number of students and the necessity of organized cheering, and in view of the fact that the cheer leaders heretofore have received no recognition of their services, the Athletic Council decided to make the cheering staff a permanent organization. On a motion by J. C. Phillips it was agreed that the cheering staff should be composed of one Senior, one Junior, and one Sophomore. Freshmen shall try for the Sophomore position and shall be nominated by the Athletic Council on the merit of their activity during

Dramatic Club To Present Two Plays

The William and Mary Dramatic Club will make its first appearance of the season at the beginning of next month when it presents "Wurzel Flummery," a comedy, and "A Game of Chess," a Russian tragedy, first in Williamsburg on February 1, and then in Norfolk on February 4 and 5.

Although it has not been definitely decided, it is probable that the plays will be given here at Cameron Hall, Eastern State Hospital. The two-night engagement in Norfolk will be filled at the Arts Players' Club Theatre, and in view of the previous successes of productions given by the Dramatic Club, the plays should prove the premier attraction while in the city across Hampton Roads.

"Wurzel Flummery," a one-act comedy under the direction of Professor Edward M. Gwathmey, is a guaranteed laugh-maker and has a very capable cast, which is as follows: Robert Crawshaw.....W. E. Bull
Mrs. Crawshaw.....Lillie Lawless
Viola Crawshaw.....Anne Townsend

Bok Peace Award Is Made Known

Plan No. 1469 has been selected by the Jury of Award as the best submitted in the $100,000 prize contest created by Edward W. Bok, for the best practicable plan by which the United States may cooperate with other nations, looking toward the prevention of war.

The Jury of Award, which was composed of Elihu Root, as Chairman, J. G. Harbord, E. M. House, Ellen F. Pendleton, Roscoe Pound, William Allen White, and Brand Whitlock, in making its decision, examined more than 22,000 plans submitted, and in unanimously choosing Plan No. 1469 as the best of those submitted, declared that Plan No. 1469 "is the best practicable plan by which the United States may cooperate with other nations to achieve and preserve the peace of the world."

The winning plan proposes in brief (1) that the United States shall immediately enter the Permanent Court of International Justice, under the conditions stated by Secretary Hughes and President Harding in February, 1923; (2) that without becoming a member of the League of Nations as at present constituted, the United States shall offer to extend its present cooperation with the League and participate in the work of the League as a body of mutual counsel under conditions which (1) substitute moral force and public opinion for the military and economic force originally implied in Articles X and XVI; (2) Safeguard the Monroe Doctrine; (3) Accept the fact that the United States will assume no obligations under the Treaty of Versailles except by act of Congress; (4) Propose that membership in the League should be

Sterling King To Succeed Ray Dawson

The Staff of the Colonial Echo has announced the appointment of Sterling King, of Richmond, to the position of Advertising Manager of the publication, to succeed Ray Dawson, who withdrew from College during the Autumn Quarter.

King is a Junior, and is active in various phases of activities. His wide acquaintance among the business men of Richmond renders him well qualified to exercise the duties of his new office.

Norfolk Club Meets; Officers Elected

The initial meeting of the Norfolk Club was held Thursday, January 10, at which time officers were elected as follows: Lomax Wells, President; Winston Irwin, Vice-President; and Mary O. Parker, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Club will meet at a later date to formulate plans for its further activities.

Indians Victors Over Jacket Basketeers

Last Saturday night in the Jefferson hall gymnasium the Indian basketball team utterly swamped the Randolph-Macon College quint by the score of 47 to 15. The Indian five excelled in every phase of the game and were especially good in passing and in ringing baskets from every part of the floor. Consistent team work throughout was also in a measure responsible for the victory.

When the W. & M. warriors trotted on the floor the galleries received a thrill because of the new uniforms in the recently adopted College colors. The most colorful part of the uniform was the sweat shirt which was gold with a silver "William and Mary" on the back and a green neckband. The jersey was plain bright gold. The pants were green with a narrow gold stripe and the stockings green, with alternate silver and gold stripes.

In the first half the Indians had no trouble in making baskets at will and at the end of this period the score was 30 to 4. At the beginning of the second half the hornet quint tightened their defense and held the Indians to 17 points in this period and made a total of 11 points themselves.

Randolph-Macon played their usual clean, hard game.

The work of both W. & M. forwards and Sexton at center deserve mentioning.

Dr. Morton Writes History of Virginia

Dr. R. L. Morton, Head of the Department of History of the College, has recently completed a History of Virginia, which will be published in the early spring.

This new History of Virginia, according to statement made by Dr. Morton to a Flat Hat reporter, will be in three volumes, the first of which was written by Dr. Alexander Bruce, of Charlottesville, the second by Dr. Lyon Gardiner Tyler, President Emeritus of the College of William and Mary, and the third by Dr. Morton.

The first volume, by Dr. Bruce, will deal with the history of the Commonwealth from the first colonial settle-

Interesting Program By J. L. Hall Society

Last Saturday night the J. Lesslie Hall Literary Society delighted a large audience by presenting a playlet written by two members of the Society, Josephine Barney and Elizabeth Walmsley.

The scene of the playlet was laid in the home of George and Martha Washington, and brought in an old fashioned quilting party. Dinah, the usual old "black mammy," appeared with many humorous remarks and the party ended in a Virginia Reel carried off in true Virginia style.

The players were well elected and were mostly successful, while elaborate costumes imported from Norfolk greatly added to the attractiveness of the play and helped to give it accurate historical setting.

The cast was as follows:

George Washington.....Elva West
Martha Washington.....
Madeline Thierry
John Randolph.....Elizabeth Walmsley
Gen. Lafayette.....Elizabeth Smucker

Gordon Keith.....Anna Johnston
Betsy Ross.....Wilhelmina Swann
Sue Wythe.....Sue Ferratt
Betsy Lewis.....Louise Sale

K. A. T. Goats Gave Banquet To Sisters

The pledges of Kappa Alpha Theta entertained the fraternity with a banquet at the Pocahontas Tea Room, Friday night, January 11. Maxwell Brockenbrough acted as toastmistress. Some cleverly rhymed toasts were offered by Beverly Caldwell, Mary Fairfax Griffith, Kitty Myrick, and Mildred Meyer. The tables were very effectively decorated in the fraternity colors and lighted by candelabras. The favors, to which the place cards were attached, consisted of small white goats wearing black and gold ribbons.

O. D. K. Will Hold Initiation Tonight

The O. D. K. Society will hold an initiation tonight at eight-thirty, to be followed by a banquet in the dining hall at nine o'clock.

The following men will be initiated:
P. P. Peebles, H. D. Wilkins, E. W. Brauer, W. S. Harwood, Horace Hicks.

INTERESTING ART EX- HIBIT AT W. & M.

An interesting exhibit of Japanese prints, under the direction of Miss Gertrude Cary, head of the fine arts department of the College, was opened in the northwest wing of the main building at 7 o'clock Wed. evening, and will be continued the rest of the week. The exhibit is open to the public, and all who are interested in subjects of art are most cordially invited to attend.

Qu'est-ce que c'est que cela, monsieur, Comment allez-vous?

Which, in the Egyptian language means,

"Sweet Mama, I love you."

THE DOUBLE-DRIBBLE

Captain Hicks certainly played one of the best games of his basketball career against Wake Forest. The little forward was all over the court, and becoming desperate in the last quarter, he caged long shots in an uncanny fashion. Hicks is the type of player that is at his best when the score is close and the fight is hard and fast. The other two forwards who alternated in the game seemed unable to get started; but then, every athlete has an off game occasionally. Even though our team lost the game, such opposition does more towards developing the team than an easy victory, such as we took from Randolph-Macon last Saturday night.

When the Indian Quint took the floor last Saturday night in their new uniforms, some wee voice was heard to utter: "Oh, look at the 'colored' team."

* * * *

The athletic authorities wish to express their appreciation for the fine spirit with which the fraternities have entered the inter-fraternity basketball league, and also the other contestants who appear on the College Night program. Judging from the audience that packed both the gallery and the lower floor for two hours, it seems that Coach Tasker's idea is a huge success.

Two members of the States "Big Four" were given somewhat of a setback last week, when Bridgewater defeated V. M. I. 26 to 15 and Lynchburg College downed V. P. I. 42 to 14. The smaller colleges refused to be awed by the mere name of an institution, and insist on breaking through occasionally.

Mr. Kroger, who has officiated in the last two games here, must certainly be complimented on his ability at handling a basketball game. With an eagle eye and a thorough knowledge of the game, his decisions have truly been fair to both teams. It is hoped that Mr. Kroger's services may be secured in the future, as a good referee goes a long way towards making a good game.

Koppisch, star backfield man for Columbia was awarded an honor last week which only a few mortals have ever received. He was elected Captain of Columbia's football team for the third time in his four years at that Institution.

Inter-Frat Series Off To Good Start

The opening of the Inter-Fraternity basketball season featured the first official observance of College Night, last Monday evening, with Kappa Alpha winning a 13 to 11 decision over Pi Kappa Alpha, and Kappa Sigma losing to Sigma Phi Epsilon by the count of 20 to 12.

In the first game the thrills came fast and furious from the initial whistle and the result was in doubt until the last minutes of play, when Kappa Alpha caged the ball just in time to nose out by a narrow margin.

The Pi K. A.'s took an early lead on Kappa Alpha, due to the accurate shooting of McGuire, and were apparently holding the edge over their opponents. But a goal by Andrews, followed by two long shots from Snidow, started the K. A.'s on their road to victory. The first half ended with Kappa Alpha leading by two points. From the very outset the last half developed into a nip and tuck affair, and not until the last minutes of the game did the K. A.'s clinch the victory.

Andrews, Snidow and Young starred for Kappa Alpha, with McGuire, Hastings and Harrison as the Pi Kappa Alpha luminaries.

The Kappa Sigma-Sigma Phi Epsilon contest resulted in a victory for S. P. E.'s, the latter winning by eight points. The Kappa Sigs fought gamely and succeeded admirably in keeping the fight away from their opponents goal, but the superb shooting of Calloway and Medlock, who caged the ball with ease from mid-floor, brought them defeat.

The S. P. E.'s started off by shooting two field goals in rapid succession, but Kappa Sigma's soon tightened left the score tied at the end of the first half. The exciting part of the contest started at the outset of the last half, and from this time on it was one point ahead this way and another that way until Calloway ended the suspense by shooting three field goals in succession.

Crutchfield and Person upheld the honors for Kappa Sigma, and Calloway, Medlock and Cofer played best for Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The line-ups:

K. A. (13)	Pos.	Pi K. A. (11)
Snidow	F.	McGuire
Andrews	F.	Hastings
Moncure	C.	Frazier
Young	G.	Andrews
Bain	G.	Harrison

Substitutions: Pi Kappa Alpha—Baker.

K. S. (12)	Pos.	S. P. E. (20)
Stuart	F.	Calloway
Crutchfield	F.	Millar
Person	C.	Cofer
Hillegas	G.	Medlock
Bridges	G.	Russell

Substitutions: Kappa Sigma—Sheild, Hooff and Kelly.

Coach Jones' Charges Hard Down To Work

Coach Jones has started his runners on the winter lap. The fast boys appeared in their new winter outfits Monday, and it seemed that they will be able to weather the storms in their new suits. Coach Jones is giving his men plenty of distance work in order to develop stamina, so that when spring comes around he will be able to devote more time to speed. The men on the winter squad are: Hooff, Moss, Gilmore, Sheild, Spraker, Hancock, Irwin, Charles, Winder, T. Daly, Wilkins, Edgar, J. Daly, Van Laer, Swink, Baker, Palmer, and Norsworthy.

Coach Jones is paying special attention to developing men for a relay team, with the probability of entering a few relay meets this winter.

Hampton High Is Victor Over Frosh.

The William and Mary Freshmen lost a hard-fought game to the Hampton High School five 26 to 22 in a preliminary to the game between the W. & M. varsity and Randolph-Macon. The game was cleanly played and was fast and furious at all times.

The high school boys had a well balanced combination and outplayed the Freshmen. In Whiddifield and Howell they had an accurate pair of basket tossers and they had a good five man defense. The Freshmen seemed to have trouble in working the ball up to their basket.

The feature of the game was the close guarding of both teams and several long shots from the center of the floor by Hampton team. Whiddifield, Howell, and Lankford played the best for Hampton while the stars for the Freshmen were Metcalf, Gornito and Meades. The line-up and score:

W. & M. (22)	Pos.	H.H.S. (26)
Feildson	R. F.	Whiddifield
Metcalf	L. F.	Howell
Davis	C.	Lankford
Gornito	R. G.	Barton
Meads	L. G.	Tennis

Summary:

Substitutions, W. & M.—Watkins for Metcalf, Metcalf for Davis. Field Goals, W. & M.—Feildson, 2; Davis, 2; Metcalf, 2; Mead, 1. Hampton—Howell, 4; Whiddifield, 4; Lankford, 3; Burton, 1. Foul Goals, W. & M.—Metcalf, 6 out of 11; Gornito, 1 out of 3; Mead, 1 out of 3. Hampton—Lankford, 1 out of 6; Howell, 1 out of 3. Referee—Wallace, W. & M.

Time of halves—20 minutes.

Scorers—Keister and Holtzclaw.

“ . . CHEWING GUM AND SEALING WAX . . ”

"The time has come," the Walrus said,
"To speak of many things."

And in following out the mandates of Mr. Walrus, we shall reverse the proverb that what touches us ourselves must be last served, and begin with our own troubles.

The editor received a letter a few days ago, from a student residing in Williamsburg, which read in part: "I desire to receive my copies of the Flat Hat A s yet I have not received a copy. My case is similar to that of a good many town students. It seems to me that good business would see to it that every town student gets the Flat Hat."

Each student living outside the College is supposed to receive the Flat Hat by mail each week. To assure delivery of the paper to those living outside, the Circulation Manager, at the beginning of the session, posted a notice on the bulletin board requesting all students who wished to receive the Flat Hat by mail to sign their names on the paper provided for the purpose; this was repeated a week or two later. So far as is known, all students who signed as requested have received the paper. The Flat Hat feels that ample opportunity was afforded these students to make sure of receiving their copies.

The staff welcomes just criticism; suggestions are gladly received, and it is a permanent policy of the paper to keep the interest of each student at heart at all times. But, we maintain that any student enterprise, conducted by students, must have the cooperation of the students if it is to be a success. The staff labors without remuneration. It labors often under all but encouraging circumstances. It is a labor of love, and the staff must insist upon friendly cooperation rather than adverse criticism. This alone can make the Flat Hat a success.

The fraternities have shown a very admirable sprit in entertaining visiting athletes. Their houses have been thrown open to the visitors, and they have endeavored in every way to send the visiting players away with a good impression of the College. The College as a whole is grateful to the fraternities for this service, and it is certain that their hospitality will go a long way toward encouraging new students to come to William and Mary.

Campus Silhouettes

He is the original apple-cheeked jazz-baby. Smiling and dancing his carefree way through College, he approaches graduation with a blitheness which that event arouses in few. Obviously, he has only those interests that involve some form of enjoyment; in reality, however, the lad whose tender years rest with such appropriate lightness on his patent-leather head is a student of no mean achievement.

Behold the faithful lover! He is a youth whose genius and versatility have enabled him to engage successfully in an avocation of a more or less literary nature, and at the same time to pursue his lady fair with the diligence of the proverbial ant. He is consistently gracious in manner; his purposeful stride indicates a basic energy which some day will undoubtedly place him in the seats of the mighty.

We make low obeisance to the Count of the Campus. Noble in bearing, rigid in dignity, and possessed of all the charm that travel lends the thoughtful soul, he occupies an individual niche in our high esteem. He radiates an inimitable hauteur; not one among us can quite achieve his air of ennui. Whatever it may be, Count, you get it!

Spanish Club Holds Initial Meeting

The Spanish Club held its first regular semi-monthly meeting in Jefferson Hall last Thursday night, January 10. An interesting literary program was the feature of the meeting.

In the business session following the program, it was decided that a new member should be elected to the Club from the advanced classes in Spanish, to replace a member who has withdrawn from College. Paul A. Moore was elected Club Reporter, and Friday of every other week was designated as regular meeting night, instead of Thursday.

Williamsburg Club Organized Tuesday

The organization of the Williamsburg Club was the chief business transacted at a meeting of the students of the College residing in Williamsburg, which was held Tuesday afternoon. The following officers were elected: P. P. Peebles, President; W. L. Person, Vice-President; Miss Ocie Jones, Secretary, and Miss Helen Graham, Treasurer.

It is the purpose of the members to make the Club a permanent organization, and to this end a meeting will be held in the near future, at which time a definite program will be formulated. The Club, at its initial meeting, adopted official colors, and a motto.

Among Our Exchanges

Five Wisconsin weekly newspapers were edited and managed by students of the University School of Journalism for one week during the past year.

The operation and management of restaurants, cafeterias, and tea rooms is now a course given at New York University. The course treats in a practical way the problems arising in this field.

Practically the entire Third Class of V. M. I. staged a walk-out last week in protest against the punishment of one of their classmates because of hazing a "rat." They spent the night in town, but most of them listened to reason and returned the next morning.

The Memorial Gymnasium of Lunchburg College, was christened in a fitting way Saturday night when the Hornets beat V. P. I. in the first game played in the new gym.

Wichita College is now offering a new course in social etiquette, which includes letter writing, table manners, and proper conduct in general. The purpose of the course is said to be the removal of individual faults and the development of social talents.

The Marionettes of Georgia Tech are casting their first original play, "The Seventh Veil," a musical, farcical, comical opera burlesque.

In the intercollegiate Chess Matches played in Brooklyn recently, the chessmen of City College of New York stood head and shoulders above any others in the country. New York University came second, and the University of Pennsylvania third.

ment up to the outbreak of the Revolution. The second, Dr. Tyler's work, will cover the period from the Revolutionary War up to the Secession Period. The third volume, which Dr. Morton has just completed, will be a chronicle of the State's history from the fall of Sumter to the present day.

Dr. Bruce and Dr. Tyler are widely known in historical circles. Both have written a number of books relating to the economic and social problems of this State. Dr. Morton has had one book published before, "The Negro in Virginia Politics from 1865 to 1902." This book was written as his Thesis for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

Dr. Morton has spent the best part of a year in research work preparing to write his history, and quite a lot of time was consumed in verifying the authenticity of facts. Government statistics, both National and State, were employed in preparing the volume.

OFFICIAL SCHEDULE FOR INTER-FRAT BASKETBALL LEAGUE

The committee in charge of the Inter-fraternity Basketball Series has announced a corrected schedule to supersede that published last week. The winning team in the series will be awarded a cup, which the fraternity will hold for a year. Any team winning the cup for two successive years will become the permanent owner of the cup. When the scheduled games have been played off, should two or more teams be tied for first place, additional games will be arranged to play off the tie.

The corrected schedule is as follows:

JANUARY 14: Pi K. A. vs. K. A. Kappa Sigma vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon.

JANUARY 21: Theta Delta Chi vs. Sigma Nu. Alpha Phi Epsilon vs. Sigma Delta Tau.

JANUARY 28: Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Sigma Delta Tau. Kappa Alpha vs. Alpha Phi Epsilon.

FEBRUARY 4: Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Theta Delta Chi. Kappa Sigma vs. Sigma Nu.

FEBRUARY 11: Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Sigma Nu. Kappa Alpha vs. Theta Delta Chi.

FEBRUARY 18: Kappa Sigma vs. Sigma Delta Tau. Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Alpha Phi Epsilon.

FEBRUARY 25: Pi Kappa Alpha vs. Alpha Phi Epsilon. Kappa Alpha vs. Sigma Delta Tau.

MARCH 3: Kappa Sigma vs. Theta Delta Chi. Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Sigma Nu.

Good Boxing Bouts College Night Feature

A splendid exhibition of boxing and wrestling given by the men, under the training of Director Siersema, brought last Monday's College Night program to an interesting close.

Two boxing bouts of three two-minute rounds each were staged, the weight of the contestants ranging from 145 to 160 pounds. The mat men wrestled for ten minutes and their weights were 185 pounds even.

Gilmore won a decision over Goodwin in the first bout, taking two out of three rounds. While Goodwin had a good defense, his offensive was poor, and Gilmore's punches frequently drove him to the edge of the ring. No telling blows were delivered from either side, and the contestants clinched repeatedly in the last frame.

Saffelle pounded out an easy victory over Meads in the second bout, and seemed to have a decided edge over his opponent in knowing the art of boxing, and in being able to deliver the punch. The first round started viciously, and the contestants clinched repeatedly from the very outset. Body blows were not infrequent and effective blows were delivered time and again. Meads fought gamely, but was no match for his opponent, who dealt him terrific punishment throughout the whole affair.

Cain and Parson were the chosen matmen for the wrestling bout, and they gave a pretty exhibition of skill and strength, ending their engagement in an evident draw. These men gave the onlookers a real treat and their tactics proved highly scientific and interesting.

Wake Forest Quint Defeats W. & M. Five

One of the most exciting basketball games witnessed on the William and Mary court was played here last Tuesday night against our old rival, Wake Forest. The Indians went on the floor determined to wipe out last year's defeat and the Carolinians entered the game just as determined to repeat last year's victory. From the first minute of play to the final whistle it was "nip and tuck," with first one side ahead and then the other. At the end of the first half the score board showed 15 to 14 in favor of the home team.

The second half was characterized by brilliant floor work and passing on both sides. Every point was bitterly contested and playing was extremely fast with neither team being able to establish a safe lead. Three minutes before the final whistle the score stood 28 to 28 and enthusiasm ran rampant along sidelines and in the balcony. Modlin, substitute right forward for Wake Forest, caged a long one and before the Indians had time to rally the time keeper's whistle sounded with the score 30 to 28 in Wake Forest's favor.

Capt. Greason and Emerson were the shining lights for the visitors, while Capt. Hicks and Harwood starred for W. & M. Hicks literally went wild in the last few minutes of play and caged some long, beautiful shots, but his shooting alone could not even the score.

Line-up and summary:

W. & M. (28)	Pos.	W. F. (30)
Hicks (C)	R. F.	Modlin
J. Todd	L. F.	Greason (C)
Sexton	C.	Emerson
L. Todd	R. G.	Daniel
Harwood	L. G.	Hood

Substitutes: William and Mary—Marshall for J. Todd; Todd for Marshall; Marshall for J. Todd. Wake Forest—Anderson for Emerson; Cathell for Hood.

Field Goals: William and Mary—Hicks, 7; Sexton, 2; Harwood, 1. Wake Forest—Greason, 4; Modlin, 3; Daniel, 3; Emerson, 2.

Foul Goals: William and Mary—Sexton, 4 out of 5; Hicks, 2 out of 3; L. Todd, 1 out of 2; Harwood, 1 out of 2. Wake Forest—Greason, 3 out of 4; Emerson, 2 out of 4; Anderson, 1 out of 2.

Referee—Kroger. Time of periods—20 minutes.

Week-End Dance Is Attractive Affair

Formal dances may come and formal dances may go, but our Saturday night dances go on forever. And what formal dance has all the care-free joy of those informal ones? We pack up our trials and tribulations of the past week, forget that we are grown up, and College students to boot, and "trip the light fantastic" gaily and madly.

Last Saturday night's dance, given by the Monogram Club, was a great success. The "Spasm Spreaders" performed their contortions in a mean fashion, the breaking was fast and furious, and everyone seemed in the humor for a good time. When those same Spreaders broke into the sad strain of "Home, Sweet Home," the usual Saturday night groan was louder and more mournful than ever.

Pocahontas Tea Room Open For Dansants

Mrs. James H. Stone announces that the Pocahontas Tea Room is open to anyone wishing to give dansants, bridge parties, afternoon teas, and the like, any afternoon from three to five o'clock.

Many new delectable dishes have been added to the menu and Mrs. Stone is endeavoring to make the Tea Room home-like for the College students.

Second of Ind. Tours Planned Jan. 25 and 26

The second of the Industrial Tours, under the direction of Professor Fichtner, has been arranged for January 25 and 26. On this trip the students will visit the plants of the Richmond Cedar Works, and the Richmond Dairy Co., and will study the methods used in these two plants.

All those interested in making this tour will communicate with Dr. Fichtner at once.

under native Frenchmen in the neighborhood of the college.

Mr. Carnovale, who presented the tablet, has an international reputation in his advocacy of neutrality as a means to abolish war. His book, entitled "Why Italy Entered the World War," is one of the great permanent contributions to literature of the war.

Mr. Carnovale will be presented by his friend, Mr. M. P. Faut, of Cleveland. Addresses will also be made at the time of presentation by N. G. Nardini, of Richmond, and Professor C. E. Castaneda, of William and Mary. Columbus Campa will sing and L. P. Morales will render a violin solo. There will be a gathering of distinguished people from neighboring cities in Virginia, and other friends of the College.

In order that out-of-town people may be able to be present, the time has been set for two-thirty.

Drinking In Colleges On Decline, Is Claim

Drinking by college students in America is on the decrease, according to speakers at the Conference of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association in Washington recently. Officials of the organization and its members expressed themselves as being gratified at the reports submitted to the meeting by field workers, who are in constant touch with conditions in the universities and schools.

A project was launched at the meeting to bring about closer cooperation between student prohibition groups. One of these groups is now in session at Philadelphia and another will meet later this week in Boston.

Speakers admitted that there is "considerable drinking in the colleges" and that the habit had been increased as a result of the war. However, it was declared, "the better class of students are becoming aroused and are taking action to promote law observance, both for the good of the institutions, themselves and through a spirit of loyalty to the government."

Dean Wilbur, of George Washington University, told the Conference that "people who think today look upon the liquor traffic as a menace." He placed "some society people" who violate the law in the same class with bootleggers.

Vernon L. Phillips, of Yale, told of the mental attitude of students toward the prohibition question.

George H. Roller, field secretary, suggested that students present encourage efforts to induce self-action by student bodies, such as recently was taken in various forms at Yale, Princeton, Penn State, University of Illinois and Dartmouth. He told of the expressed opposition by women students of Cornell and the University of Wisconsin to men students using liquor on the campus.

Alumnus-Legislator Visits the College

Among those attending the game and hop Saturday night were W. M. Tuck, of South Boston, Member of the House of Delegates from Halifax County, and Colonel Joe Flood, Commonwealth's Attorney of Appomattox County, and member of Governor Trinkle's Staff.

Bill Tuck, as he is known to his friends here, entered William and Mary in the fall of 1913, and later entered the Law School of Washington and Lee University. Since his graduation in 1920 he has been practicing law in South Boston. In his candidacy for the legislature last summer he defeated his opponent by a large majority.

Regular Meeting of Clayton-Grimes Club

The Clayton-Grimes Biology Club met last Friday night in the Physics Lecture Room. The program consisted of papers by Mr. Brothers, on "The Hen That Changed to a Rooster," Mr. Johner on "The Progress of Science," and Miss Margaret Keister on "The Eggs of the Dinosaur."

In the business session, the question of changing the night of meeting was discussed, and the Club decided to meet on Friday night as heretofore.

The next meeting of the Club will be held January 25.

MONTHLY MEETING E. & C. A. HELD TUESDAY AFTERNOON

The E. & C. A. held its regular monthly business meeting Tuesday afternoon at the public library with a large attendance of members. Interesting reports were made by standing and special committees, showing the activity of the association in all educational and civic affairs. The citizenship committee was enlarged both in membership and scope of work, and promises to be especially active during the next few months when the State Legislature is in session and important elections are to be held in Williamsburg.

Southern Society Formed At N. Y. U.

A Southern Society composed of students from thirteen Southern States has been formed at New York University with a membership of forty young men and women. It is hoped eventually to include all Southern students in the Hall of Fame institution in the membership of the society. The officers are: Virgil S. Steed, Atlanta, President; Miss Mabel R. Deakins, Norfolk, Vice-President; Miss Malvina Schweizer, New Orleans, Secretary and Treasurer, and S. Joseph Birshtein, Norfolk, Corresponding Secretary.

While the purpose of the Southern Society is largely social, it already has gone in actively for charity and social service work. Thanksgiving Day members of the society distributed generous dinner baskets among needy New York families and just before the Christmas holidays an entertainment was given to raise funds for a settlement house near the University. Faculty members of New York University from the South, particularly Dean John R. Turner and Dr. H. H. Horne, have interested themselves in the society and have been made honorary members.

The membership of the society includes the following students from Virginia: Leslie Adams, Miss Mabel R. Deakins, S. Joseph Birshtein, Joseph Cappadona and Martin Rothenberg, Norfolk; Miss Hazel E. Fleiss, Clifton Forge; Louis W. Rogers, Lynchburg, and Nat Goldstein, Petersburg.

Classes In Va. Gov. Hear Miss Pidgeon

The classes in Virginia Government, under the instruction of Dr. John Garland Pollard, had the pleasure on Monday of hearing Miss Elizabeth Pidgeon, of the University of Virginia, deliver short talks on State and local government.

Miss Pidgeon was limited in her time, but succeeded in giving the students a very clear and forceful conception of government as it is today. In mentioning the message of Governor E. Lee Trinkle, which was delivered at the opening of the assembly on January 3, she stated that it was one of the most complete ever delivered by a Governor of this State.

That only one-fourth of the State monies go through the budget, is in the mind of Miss Pidgeon, a very good argument for the "cover all" budget which would handle all State funds. The budget, so far as its influence extends, is remarkably successful.

She also mentioned the statement made by the late Viscount James Bryce, who was an authority on American Government, that the United States is ruled by the "tyranny of the majority." This can only be dangerous when the majority are uneducated. Governments progress with the development of their people," said Miss Pidgeon, "and it is also true that legislatures can not move any faster than public opinion."

their freshman year. Each cheer leader shall move up as he advances with his class and each retiring Senior leader shall, in recognition of his services, receive a gold megaphone watch charm, and a certificate from the Athletic Council. In case any leader drops out or fails to return to school or to advance with his class, the other leaders shall move up in order of seniority and a new man be elected from those previously nominated by the Athletic Council at the beginning of the year. It was also decided to provide the cheer leaders with some sort of distinctive jerseys.

On a motion by W. H. Hastings it was decided that the minutes of subsequent meetings of the Athletic Council be published in the "Flat Hat."

J. H. Chalkley, who was elected basketball manager to succeed J. C. Chandler, resigned, took his place on the council.

Those present were: T. L. Jordan, President; J. C. Phillips, Secretary; R. E. Kennard, Manager of Baseball; J. H. Chalkley, Manager of Basketball; J. H. Garnett, Manager of Track; Russell Stewart, Manager of Football.

Those who take parts in the play promise a production of the first rank. It is given under the direction of Dr. W. A. Montgomery and the cast is as follows:

Alexis Alexandrovitch.....George Reilly
Boris Ivanovitch Shamrayeff.....
.....E. Wellford Brauer
Constantine.....Asher L. Baker
Footman.....J. M. Hord
